

Snap-on new product

January 29, 2001

Electronic Auto-darkening Welding Helmet eliminates the need to "flip" helmet after striking an arc.

YA595

- Six (6) square inch viewing area (4.5" x 5.25" helmet window)
- On switch with auto-off feature
- Sensitivity adjustment allows adjustment for bright or dim environments
- Infinitely adjustable from 8.5 to 12.5 shade
- Clear Vue™ light state provides 2.75 shade when "at rest"
- Independent, redundant sensors provide maximum reliability
- Adjustable dark to clear delay is ideal for pulse TIG welding
- Requires two "AAA" batteries
- Low battery indicator
- Adjustable head band
- Lightweight/durable design
- Made in U.S.A.

YA595

Controls
on inside of helmet

WARNING

Wear welding helmet and protective clothing (user & bystanders) while using a torch or welding.