Visit Snap-on Total Shop Solutions Booth at NADA

Conway, AR – March 5, 2018 – The latest innovative productivity enhancing products will be on display at the Snap-on® booth (#3058C) at the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) show in Las Vegas, March 22-25.

“We invite all the attendees of NADA to stop by our booth to see how Snap-on can help them improve business and increase the bottom line,” said William Bruno, vice president and general manager of Snap-on Equipment. “We encourage our customers to try our products so they can see for themselves how easy they are to operate. With so many new products on display, visitors to the Snap-on booth can expect a valuable hands-on experience.”

One of the state-of-the-art products on display for Snap-on customers will be the award-winning John Bean V3300 Diagnostic Wheel Alignment System. Designed for high-volume shops, the John Bean V3300 provides immediate, precise alignments and features an innovative notification system that helps prevent errors before they result in a bad alignment.

NADA attendees can also see the award-winning John Bean V1200 Wheel Aligner in action. Featuring a compact design that fits perfectly in shorter bays, the John Bean V1200 provides high quality imaging alignments quickly and accurately.

Customers can find out more about John Bean automotive wheel service and collision repair products by calling 877-482-4866 or visiting www.JohnBean.com.
