John Bean Tru-Point and Other Award-Winning Snap-on TSS Products Showcased at SEMA

Conway, AR – Oct. 23, 2023 – The award-winning new John Bean[®] Tru-Point[™] advanced driver assistance system (ADAS) calibration tool, along with other award-winning Snap-on[®] Total Shop Solutions (TSS)[™] products, will be on display and available for demonstrations at the 2023 Specialty Equipment Market Association[®] (SEMA) show being held Oct. 31-Nov. 3 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

“As the global leader in providing its customers with innovative and productive automotive repair products, we are looking forward to the SEMA show to showcase our latest innovative equipment, including all the exciting enhancements we have made to Tru-Point,” said Mariana Montovaneli, director of marketing for TSS. “At TSS, we work closely with our customers to show them how TSS can help them improve and grow their businesses. We invite all SEMA attendees to stop by our booth to try these pioneering products in person.”

Tru-Point will be one of several products featured at the TSS booth (#32017). The Snap-on booth is in the Collision Repair & Refinishing area, South Hall Upper, in the convention center. In addition, Tru-Point will be showcased at the SEMA garage booth (#36007), South Hall Upper, and the SEMA FutureTech Studio (#24401), Central Hall.

Other John Bean equipment on display at the TSS booth will include the V3300 diagnostic wheel alignment system, B2000P wheel balancer, T7800 PROspeed[™] tire changer and the 14K short locked and lighted scissor alignment lift.

Hofmann[®] will have its innovative service equipment on display, including the geoliner[®] 609 and 678-wheel alignment systems, 2400P Armored Series wheel balancer, 8200 monty[®] SmartSpeed[™] and 3850 tire changers, geodyna[®] 980L wheel balancer, TreadReader[™] and 15K four-post alignment lift.

Also showcased at the TSS booth will be productivity enhancing products from many TSS brands like Car-O-Liner[®], Challenger Lifts, Ecotechnics, Mitchell 1[™], and Sun[®] and JOSAM[®] will introduce its products to the North American market at SEMA. Many of the products will be available for hands-on demonstrations.
