Snap-on TSS Showcases Cutting-Edge Product Innovations at SEMA

CONWAY, Ark. – Oct. 23, 2025 – Snap-on® Total Shop Solutions (TSS)™ will have a wide array of innovative and performance-boosting products and equipment on display at the 2025 Specialty Equipment Market Association® (SEMA®) Show held Nov. 4-7 at the Las Vegas Convention Center. The products and equipment will be available for demonstrations at booth 32017.

TSS Products will also be featured on the SEMA Live YouTube channel on Wednesday, Nov. 5 from 3:50-4:10 p.m. PT. SEMA Live allows viewers across the world to witness the unveiling of new products and learn about the latest industry trends occurring during SEMA.

John Bean® will feature several of its award-winning products, including the Tru-Point™ advanced driver assistance system (ADAS) calibration solution. Two special John Bean 100th anniversary aligners, the V4400 Commander® and the V2380, will also be on display along with John Bean lifts, aligners, balancers and tire changers.

Hofmann® alignment systems, tire changers, wheel balancers, TreadReader™ and the 15K four-post alignment lift will also be highlighted at booth 32017.

Car-O-Liner® will present an assortment of advanced collision repair equipment, including bench racks, welders, measuring systems, riveting tools and workstations.

Productivity-enhancing products from Cartec™ (headlight tester), Challenger Lifts (lifts and mobile columns), including the award winning 12K HD two-post adjustable lift, and Ecotechnics (air conditioning service products) will be featured as will products from Pro-Cut™ (brake lathes), Snap-on Diagnostics (scan tools) and SUN® Collision (collision repair information).

TSS will also have a special heavy-duty section at its booth featuring innovative HD products from Challenger Lifts, Hofmann, Pro-Cut and the award winning JOSAM® Cam-Aligner.

“As a global leader in cutting-edge automotive repair solutions, we are thrilled to share the latest innovations from the Snap-on TSS brands this year at the SEMA Show,” said Mariana Montovaneli, director of marketing at Snap-on Equipment. “Our teams collaborate directly with customers to ensure that our products drive real business value. We welcome all who attend the SEMA Show to stop by booth 32017 and see for themselves how Snap-on TSS products enhance shop productivity and profitability.”
