

FRANCHISEE RELATIONSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

Franchisee Company Set-up Requirements

When creating your Franchise entity, you are not permitted to use any Snap-on owned trademark as part of the name. This means you may not use Snap-on, SNA, Snappy or any derivative of those names. Use of "Trading as Snap-on Tools" is also not permitted.

Document Requirements

The following company documents (photocopies are acceptable) must accompany this form when being lodged with Snap-on Tools:

- a) Company Constitution (Signed & Dated)
- b) Photocopy of Share Certificate(s) after they have been conspicuously endorsed with the following statement:
 - "Transfer or assignment of the Share of this Company is restricted by the Snap-on Tools Franchise Agreement between the Company and Snap-on Tools (Australia) Pty Ltd."
- c) Resolution from company director(s) authorising purchase of Snap-on Tools Franchise.
- d) List of Shareholders and relationship to Franchisee.
- e) Trust Deed (If Applicable)

Please Remember:

- You must own and continue to own, the majority of the stock or membership interest in the Franchisee.
- You will be required to execute certain assignment documents which contain personal guarantees of the obligations contained in the Franchise Agreement and all other agreements between Snap-on and the Franchisee.
- Each stock certificate or other evidence of ownership interest of the Franchisee shall have conspicuously endorsed upon its face the following legend: "Transfer or assignment of the stock or ownership interest of this company is restricted by the Snap-on Tools Franchise Agreement between the Franchisee and Snap-on Tools (Australia) Pty Ltd".

If you have any additional questions, please contact the National Franchise Manager, Stacey Gilbert on +61 2 9837 9182 or Stacey.a.gilbert@snapon.com.
